

Domain Requirements:

- Clients personal data like his address or phone number will be invisible so it will be not allowed for any one to dig in others information .
- Technician data like his work location or phone number will be visible but it will be not allowed for any one to change his information.
- The clients' feedbacks offer information coming directly from the clients themselves about the satisfaction or dissatisfaction they felt with the technician or the service. Clients comments and complaints given to TechFix are an important resource for improving the technicians and addressing the needs and wants of the clients. regardless positive or negative feedback it will be taken in consideration but any disrespectful comment will be dismissed .
- Technician can create an account in order to participate in the website. Technician can sign up by providing his/her forename, last Name, date of birth, name of business and type of service. The technician can also add a thorough description of his/her provided services. Technician will provide his/her email, password, telephone number, Fax number (If available) in order for the clients to be able to contact him/her, after that he/she will pass through a verification process to make sure that he/she able to work with us.